

I am very concerned about Sinclair Broadcasting forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just before the election. This amounts to free advertising for the Bush and campaign and should not be allowed.